THE ANSWER

manfriday

man friday (n.) — the trusted right hand who handles everything

An AI analyst team for the business of one.

01

Your own analyst team

Real retention curves, packaging graded on live watch-time, competitive baselines — specialist agents on official data.

answers: running blind · underearning

02

It learns your channel

Every upload, retention curve and comment teaches the next call — what worked, what didn't, what to make next.

answers: algorithm volatility

03

Always-on research

Daily sweeps of the web and your keywords; drop any video URL and its transcript and comments are mined.

answers: no time for it all

25 tools · 10 specialist agents · a learning ledger · official YouTube APIs first · exports to Notion and Drive

Hours back. Views up. A business, not a bet.

Package like the top 1%

Every upload graded against real watch-time and search demand — before you publish.

See real retention, not vibes

Your analytics and most-replayed peaks, cross-read with your actual script.

Make what viewers already want

Comments mined into a ranked backlog of proven, requested ideas.

Run on autopilot

Monitoring, cataloging and reporting happen while you create.

Built on what the 2025 data proved matters: distribution · income · time.
